

GENERAL STUDIES STUDENT COUNCIL
Columbia University in the City of New York
School of General Studies

2010-2011 Session
9 November, 2010

RESOLUTION

Subject: Online Course Evaluations

Whereas a strong liberal arts education is founded on the growth of knowledge and rational thought; and

Whereas an uninterrupted flow of opinions and ideas fosters that growth in both the faculty and student populations of Columbia University; and

Whereas the student body of the School of General Studies shall be not limited, but supported by the maximization of all information available to their benefit; therefore

Resolved, That the General Studies Student Council supports the efforts of Columbia College Student Council, the Student Government Association of Barnard College, and Columbia Engineering Student Council, in their goal of expanding the dissemination of information collected by the online course evaluations, which are given at the end of each semester.

Reviewed and approved this date by the Student Council of the School of General Studies.
